

Daring and controversial, ADAM CULLEN is the edgy inspiration behind THE CULLEN.

Known as the enfant terrible in the Australian contemporary art scene, Adam Cullen combines irreverent humour with an astute sensitivity to society.

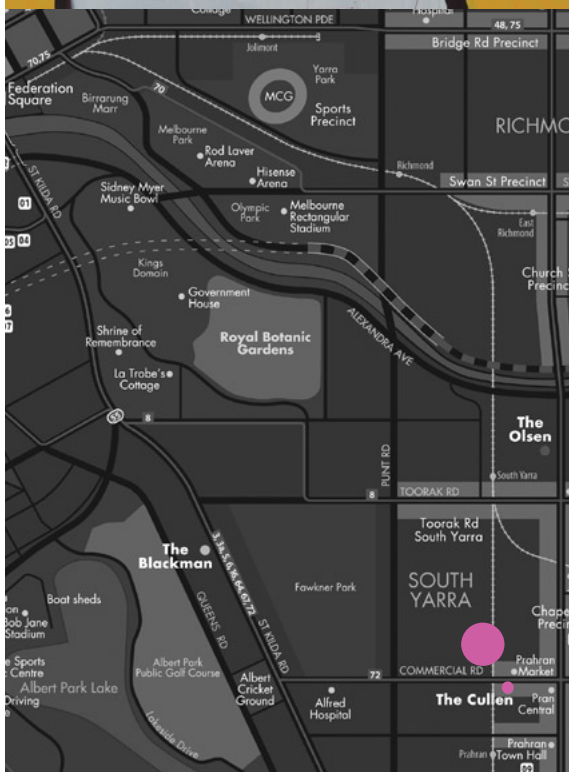

The Cullen sits boldly in bohemian and eclectic Prahran attracting a bevy of locals, eager for tasty fare from either delicious restaurant. You can stay for a night, a weekend or as long as you like.

With spectacular uninterrupted views of Melbourne's CBD, Prahran Fresh Markets opposite, transport, bars and nightlife all at your doorstep, unlike Hotel California – you won't want to leave.

The Cullen was proudly featured in the 2010 Condé Nast Traveller US Hot List. Experience a stay a little extraordinary.
